

Her best friend is Maya.

She is always tired.

She wears her long, dark brown hair in a ponytail.

She lives in a caravan in the front garden,

She works in a supermarket.

Her sleep is always getting disturbed by the noisy next door neighbour.

She once contributed to a science journal.

She was given a Disaster Ration bar by a soldier.

She listens to music through headphones.

She ate a soggy biscuit out of the washing up bowl.

She worries a lot.

Her favourite chocolate is ginger chocolate.
